—Everybody who attended the last one enjoyed it, and approved of getting up another next year.

—H. H. P. wanted to see a sick head in a few minutes. For sale by McHale, Brice & Ketchin.

The residents of Evans street request the town council to remove the weeds which are about to take the street.

—The man shot by Mr. W. B. Yarbrough some time since, under a misapprehension, has since improved as to be out walking about.

—Now that the election is over let us all return to business and take a long pull, and a strong pull, and a pull altogether to get on the high way to prosperity.

—Now is the time to sow a patch of barley or rye for your cow during the winter. A few handbills will give the milk richness and make the butter richer.

—Capt. C. S. Dwight contemplates erecting a cottage this fall on a lot recently purchased from Messrs. Ketchin and Elliott, near the Episcopal rectory.

—At a recent meeting of the Glendale Grove Alliance Mr. J. M. Higgins was elected president, and Saturday 22nd inst. was appointed for the next meeting.

THE REV. GEO. H. THAYER, of Boston, Ind. says: "Both myself and wife owe our lives to SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE." For sale by Dr. W. E. Aiken.

—Mr. S. S. Wolfe was engaged all day Monday in removing his grocery stock to the store in the Deady building. His customers and friends will hereafter find him in this store.

—The youngest child of Capt. Hoggan died at Daywood on Saturday night. The child was about 7 months old. The symptoms of his illness are attributed to a cold.

—In the recent contest Mr. J. A. Gladden succeeded in having his will by changing the names on the bank. We have heard of others being hatched to do so, but never before have we heard of this way of securing a restful house.

—A mad dog was killed on Saturday morning on the railroad by P. McMaster. The dog had bit several other dogs and two cows on R. L. Elliott's place before it was killed. Everybody had better be careful.

—Major Pagan is visiting Gen. Bragg and we very much fear the weather will get out of hand during his absence. He has requested all the Major's children to give as a little sunshiner, and we hope he will not remain away very long.

—In an examination in Columbia there were several applicants for the United States. Sister Richard Pagan, of this town, was one of the applicants and although not successful he made a most creditable stand. Mr. Walter Thomas, son of Col. J. P. Thomas, secured the position.

—Mr. J. W. Woodward exhibited at the Institute a specimen of red granite said to be of a very fine quality, and quarried in this county. The "everlasting hills" of old Fairfield are beginning to yield up the treasures which they have been so long holding. With blue, gray, and red granite to be transported in addition to our agricultural products we must have another railroad to give us competing rates. With the assistance of Mr. McCall and the W. W. & C. R. R.

—In the spring and autumn seasons as well as before the holiday season opens, send out to your customers and to the public generally a neat souvenir in the form of a circular that will be attractive and at the same time give them some interesting information about the goods you have to sell, and they will read and keep it. The more tastefully and attractively this circular is gotten up, the more attentively it will be read, and the longer it will be kept, the greater good it will do you.

—The creditors of H. O'Neill, a New York merchant, soliciting the partnership of our ladies, are being distributed. We hope that our home merchants will have the first call, and that nothing that can be bought here will be ordered from him. Everybody is interested in building up the community, and everything bought here, and every dollar kept here adds to our aggregate business and wealth, and as the business of the town grows everybody in the community is benefited. Let each one of us do his part.

—If you take JERSEY PLANTS containing the names of those who have been successful in growing them, and send it to the Editor. For sale by McMaster, Brice & Ketchin.

—Messrs. Q. D. Willford & Co. have enlarged their store room by taking down the partition dividing their store from the store occupied by Mr. Samuel McDowell, so that they now occupy the space formerly included in both stores. Tastefully furnished between the columns supporting the ceiling is seen brilliant gas chandeliers, which, with the neat and orderly arrangement of goods creates a very pleasing effect. From the stacks of goods piled up we judge this enterprising firm expects to do a large business this fall.

—Two new dry goods stores and a farmers store will be opened this month in town. This will give the people of the county a large choice to select from, and there is no necessity to go elsewhere. Prices as low, goods of as good quality, and clerks as smiling as can be found anywhere, so don't go off to spend your money until you have given Winnsboro a trial. Many have gone farther and done a great deal worse. Our merchants are determined to give competing prices, so call and see.

—When everybody had begun to feel good over the bright weather, the clouds joined together and brought as more of the disagreeable, crop-destroying rains on Sunday, which continued with more or less severity up to late Monday evening. Although no reports of the destruction of bridges in this county have been received nevertheless great damage has been done on the rivers. Reports from both the Broad and Wateree rivers show that the crops have been overgrown and destroyed. This is the third time in succession that the river freshet has destroyed the crops. The farmers along the rivers have lost their corn crop and fodder, besides much cotton.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY—a cure for Catarrh, Discharge, and Cancer—Mouth. For sale by Dr. W. E. Aiken.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Stark Martin is visiting her sister, Miss Mattie Galtier. Mrs. A. W. Brown is visiting relatives at Davidson College, N. C.

Mrs. F. M. Clarke is visiting relatives at Trenton.

Miss Mary Ellen Aiken has gone to Salisbury, to take a course in music.

Mrs. W. B. Creight has returned home after a visit to Salem, N. C., and Rock Hill, S. C.

Miss Sallie Woodward is visiting Dr. Aiken's family.

Miss Lirie Skinner has returned from Charlotte, N. C., where she has been visiting relatives and friends.

Judge Longstreet Galt passed through town the other day.

Mrs. E. P. Woodward.—We clip the following from a Waco, Texas, paper of date September 11:

In the death of Mrs. E. P. Woodward we have suffered the loss of a most estimable lady, and the community will sympathize with the bereaved husband and the children. Mrs. Woodward was born near Winnsboro, South Carolina. She moved with her husband, Col. E. P. Woodward, from Alabama, to Waco in 1877, and the family have resided here ever since. She died at 7 A. M., yesterday, of paralysis. The funeral will be conducted by Rev. B. H. Carroll, at 10 o'clock this morning, and the burial will take place at Oakwood.

Mrs. Woodward was the youngest child of Col. Wm. T. Woodward, of this county, and only sister of Maj. T. W. Woodward.

DEATH OF MRS. E. M. HUEY.—Mrs. Maggie Shaw Huey, wife of Mr. M. Huey, died on Wednesday morning after an illness of about two weeks. Though she has been quite sick during this period, she was much better on Tuesday morning, and in fact had sat up for a while. Her friends were at all appreciative, but she became worse and worse until death finally came at 10 o'clock on Wednesday.

She was the oldest daughter of the late Robert M. and Margaret Shaw, and was thirty-four years of age. Mrs. Huey was a lady of many Christian virtues, and she will be sadly missed by her many friends and relatives. She leaves a husband, two young children, and an only sister to mourn her untimely death. The funeral services were held at the A. R. P. Church on Wednesday afternoon. To the bereaved husband and family we extend our sympathies and those of the entire community.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTRY.—All of the corn on west Wateree has been under water and is about ruined. Farmers are talking of putting in a large crop of oats.

Corn will not average over half a crop, it is said.

There has been a protracted meeting going on at the Longtown Baptist church, conducted by Rev. T. W. Mellichamp, assisted by Rev. A. McCa. Pittman.

There is a cut in the price of ginning. The price in some portions of the county has been $2 per bale heretofore, but owing to competition the price has been reduced to $1 per bale.

Some gentlemen went deer hunting this week on the Wateree and killed two—one a buck weighing 150 pounds and the other a doe weighing 130 pounds.

In a portion of the county wild turkeys are not only plentiful but are quite destructive to the crops.

Mr. L. T. Wilds, of the Longtown section, has put up a grist mill and cotton gin, all run by water. He is thinking of adding a flouring mill.

ARE YOU MADE miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Skin? Shiloh's Vitalizer is a positive cure. For sale by Dr. W. E. Aiken.

PENSIONS.—We are in receipt of the annual report of the Commissioner of Pensions of the United States, for 1888. A table showing the number of pensioners in each county of each State and Territory and in each foreign country, and the amount of paid as current pensions in each of said counties and foreign countries for the quarter ending June 30, 1888, is given.

In South Carolina we notice the following: Fairfield county has 13 pensioners who receive quarterly $384.00, which is divided between the 13, which gives for each one the sum of a little over $29 for the quarter, or a little above $2 per month, for the whole year. There are several other counties in the State receiving larger pensions than Fairfield. Some of the largest are Aiken, Beaufort, Charleston, and Richland, each receiving over $1,000 per quarter. Although not stated in statistics it is safe to say that most of the pensioners in this county as well as in others were soldiers in the Mexican war, as there are few persons in the State who sided with the government in the late war. Altogether in the State there are 524 pensioners receiving $10,255.50 a quarter.

FAIRFIELD UNION.—The Fairfield Union will be held with the Sandy Level Church September 28-30. Sermon on Friday by the Rev. W. H. Martin; sermon on Saturday by the Rev. D. F. Corley; sermon on Sunday by the Rev. T. W. Mellichamp. The following are the subjects for discussion:

1. What did it mean in the early days of Christianity to be a disciple of Christ, and a member of His Church? What does it mean now?

2. What relation does the church member who patronizes bar rooms and the modern dance sustain to the world?

3. As God does not forgive sin unconditionally, how ought Christian forgiveness to be exercised?

4. What is the relation of the Sabbath School to the church in which it is organized? What is the duty of the church to the same?

5. Is not the church that fails to enforce Scriptural discipline on the sure road to ruin?

The brethren from the churches will come prepared to make short and practical speeches.

A. McCa. PITTMAN, Chairman of Arrangement Committee.

WE PUBLISH.—We publish the following letter from a Capt. Brown, of the agricultural department, and hope that some of our farmers will respond. Any thing sent to the office of THE NEWS AND HERALD will be duly forwarded. The Augusta Exposition will be attended largely by Western farmers for the purpose of looking out for Southern homes, and it is very important that Fairfield be represented in the picture. So send in your specimens as early as possible. The Exposition will open 10 October next. Not much time to lose.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, COLUMBIA, S. C., 15 Sept., 1888.

Mr. J. Q. Davis, Winnsboro, S. C.: Dear Sir—I notice in the News and Courier, of this date's issue, that at your Farmer's Institute certain farm products were exhibited which were sent to the State to the State exhibit at the Augusta Exposition.

We would be pleased to get stalks of corn, sweet potatoes, Irish potatoes, sorghum syrup, apples, native grasses, sorghum sugar, and pumpkins. If you can obtain the articles for us, will send shipping tags at 10 cents each. When you send an article, please send a label with the name of the article and does not wish to contribute, the department will pay a reasonable price for the same.

Yours truly, ANGEUS P. BROWN.

COUNT.—Court met on Monday, Judge J. H. Hudson presiding. The court convened at 10 o'clock, but owing to the absence of several grand jurors the business of the court was delayed. When the necessary number of jurors were found present his honor addressed them in substance as follows: "You have already been charged as to your general duties, and I will not therefore charge you at length, but will proceed to charge you in regard to the bills handed to me by the Solicitor." His Honor then charged the jury as to their duty in the cases handed to them by the Solicitor. The first case taken up was that of the State vs. William Quarles, charged with murder. This case was tried at the last term, and resulted in a mistrial. It was a case in which an older brother attempted to chastise the defendant with a wagon whip, and was cut by the defendant and died soon after. The case created no little interest. C. A. Douglass for the defense. Verdict—"Not Guilty."

State vs. Julius Bonware, assault with intent to ravish. Regedale & Regedale for the defense. Up to the time of going to press no verdict had been rendered.

"HACKMETACK," a lasting and fragrant perfume. Price 25 and 50 cents. For sale by Dr. W. E. Aiken.

AMONG OUR ADVERTISERS.—J. J. Geige & Co. announce this morning that they have on the way furniture to suit everybody. These gentlemen have gone into the furniture business to succeed, and if low prices and good goods will accomplish anything, they will "get there with both feet."

McMaster, Brice, & Ketchin state that they are daily receiving their fall and winter stock of dry goods and millinery. Their buyer has just returned from the Northern markets after a stay of two weeks, during which time he spared no pains in making selections for both departments of their establishment that will attract purchasers both as to quality and price. Miss Sheppard will again be in charge of the millinery department this season. Read what they have to say in their advertisement.

Groeschel & Co. ask you to smoke the "HIS" cigar. This is a new brand that they have just received, and claim that it is unequaled by any other on the market. They carry a good stock of wines, liquors, etc., and request a share of your patronage. Call and see them.

Messrs. Center & Clarke request an inspection of their handsome line of dress goods with trimmings to match. Mr. Center has just returned from the North, and is prepared to compete with any other house in town as to quality, style, and in price of all goods in their line. They will give prices next week but in the meantime ask you to call and inspect their stock. They will take pleasure in showing their goods.

Mr. F. W. Habenicht has again replenished his stock of smokers goods with 6,000 latest improved Duke cigarettes and 5,000 of the best 5c cigars. In this line Mr. Habenicht carries more than the best goods and his stock is always full and complete. He has recently refitted his restaurant and will keep on hand all the delicacies of the season. Fritz knows how to carry on this business, and don't forget him when you need anything in his line. He will treat you in the right way and serve you things in the right style. He receives fresh fish three times a week. Call at his ice house and be supplied. The large U. S. flag and the Cleveland and Thurman banners will guide you to the right place.
